

LESSON 5 - HANDOUT - ROLEPLAY SCENARIOS

A student is waiting in line for a turn on the swing,
but someone cuts in front of them.

During free play time, a student is building
a tower from blocks, a friend joins in but accidentally knocks over the tower.

A brother or sister take and play with a favourite toy
or belonging without asking permission.

A group of students are excited to play outside,
but it suddenly starts to rain.

Two friends are sharing a book, one accidentally spills their drink over the page.

A group of students are playing a team game but losing.

While at a family gathering, a younger cousin keeps following around a student and annoying them.