

LESSON 6 - HANDOUT - ROLEPLAY SCENARIOS

Two friends are playing cards.
Another person comes along and wants to join in but feels too shy to ask if they can be included.

One member of the class, who is usually very talkative and friendly during lessons and lunch times has been less talkative lately. A few classmates notice that their friend isn't their usual self.

Two friends are playing a game of cards, which they've been keeping score of their points throughout the game.
When they reach the end, they find their score records
don't match up, and begin arguing about who won.

You find a lost rabbit on the weekend. The rabbit looks scared and lost, and you don't know what to do.

Four classmates are working together on a mathematics puzzle. One classmate in the group wasn't at school for the last lesson and doesn't understand the task.
They start getting upset and distressed.
